

HUMANS in SITUATIONS

Invitation to the conference on November 26-27, 2015

Warsaw, SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities
19/31 Chodakowska St.
Tadeusz Tomaszewski Hall (floor II) and room S203

The conference is being organized by the Tadeusz Tomaszewski Foundation for the Development of Polish Psychology with support from the Committee for Psychology of the Polish Academy of Sciences.

The co-organizers are the Faculty of Psychology of the University of Warsaw and the Faculty of Psychology of the SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities in Warsaw.

The topic of the conference is a reference to the title of a subchapter of Professor Tadeusz Tomaszewski's textbook Psychologia (pp. 17-36) from 1975 (Warszawa: PWN).

We aim to show what contemporary psychology contributes to the understanding of the notion of situation and what new things we can say now, 40 years since the Professor's text was published, about humans in the multitude of situations of which they are the subject.

Program Council

Prof. Ida Kurcz (Chair)

Prof. Adam Frączek, Prof. Urszula Jakubowska

Prof. Maria Materska, Prof. Zofia Ratajczak

Prof. Janusz Reykowski, Prof. Jan Strelau

The conference program includes five plenary lectures and six themed sessions (three times two sessions held simultaneously).

Next year we plan to continue the conference under the title
