

Dear All,

We would like to inform you that from 19.04.2021 the Library Lending Room in Warsaw will renew operations according to the following rules:

The Lending Room opening hours:

- Monday, Wednesday, Friday: 10.00-18.00
- Saturday: 10.00-18.00

The Library will only lend materials requested through the ALEPH system. Please come to collect your ordered materials only after receiving the email confirmation from the Library.

Your reserved items will remain available for three days.

The Main Library in Warsaw will also process orders from the Oriental collection.

The materials to be returned should be placed in the return box (located outside the Library) or on the storage trolley located next to the lending desk.

All Library payments should be made cashless (by card or by bank transfer).

Only the Lending Room will renew operations, while the Reading Room remains closed.

You will not be able to work there, access computers, including these database, read materials or make copies.

Only two people may be present In the Lending Room at any time.

Please remember to comply with all applicable safety rules.

We recommend you to use the databases in which electronic versions of books and articles are available. Links to these databases can be found in the Library catalog available online.

We cordially invite you to use the Library.
