A brief description of the research directions pursued by the supervisor (a few sentences describing the scientific/artistic specialization, main research problems; scientific interests) and a possible link to the website/research team	I am conducting studies of personality changes as a result of fulfilling the role of a parent, regretting decisions about parenthood and parental burnout. In the studies I am currently involved in, we are exploring with the team the meaning of child illness, a parent's sexual orientation, cultural differences, gatekeeping. Overall, our studies circle around parenthood and its impact on the individual. https://english.swps.pl/3250-center-for-research-on-personality-development
Thematic areas of planned doctoral dissertations	PhD students will be involved in international studies on parental burnout and parenthood regret and will collaborate with our colleagues from different countries worldwide. We will use longitudinal and qualitative research methods in our studies.
