

Minutes of the Board activity in 2023

The activity of the Board was conducted on-line and included mainly the preparation of a post-conference publication. Thanks to the initiative of professor Grażyna Wąsowicz several papers were completed, reviewed, prepared for publication and finally published in „The Review of Psychology”, vol. 66, number 2 in a Polish and English version. The papers are as follows:

- Grażyna Wąsowicz: Introduction
- Marta Mrozowicz-Wrońska, Katarzyna Ślosarczyk, Marta Koczurek: Experience of SARS-CoV-2 virus infection and compulsory isolation during the first wave of the pandemic in Poland – a qualitative analysis
- Dariusz Drążkowski: Reactance against Anti-COVID Regulations – a systematic Review
- Magdalena Iwanowska, Blanka Kondratowicz, Anna Maria Zawadzka: Predictors of New Media Use in the COVID-19 Pandemic: A Brief Research Report
- Grażyna Wąsowicz: COVID-19 pandemic and pollution of the environment – threat perception, willingness to incur economic costs, psychological resources and behaviors
- Grażyna Wąsowicz: Report from the conference entitled “The threat of COVID-19 and the threat of climate change in the light of the results of psychological research” (Warsaw, April 11, 2022)
